

Information sheet: National visa

Visa for skilled workers seeking employment (Section 20 Residence Act)

Basic information

- For general information please see our website <https://lusaka.diplo.de/zm-en/service> and our Visa Navigator <https://visa.diplo.de/en/#/vib>
- Documents not in the German/ English language must be submitted with a certified German translation. A translation of the personal data page of the passport is not required.
- All documents must be presented as original, certificates must be presented with apostille/legalisation. Your original documents will be returned to you once your application has been processed.
- Processing time is approx. 4-8 weeks but can take longer in individual cases.
- Flight reservations are not required to apply for a visa – please book your flights only when you have received your visa.
- The Embassy reserves the right to request further documents.
- Missing documentation delays the procedure and can result in your application being rejected.
- Please do not contact the Embassy to check the status of your application during the normal processing period. Such inquiries are extremely time-consuming for the visa section and can thus not be answered.

General information

The visa for seeking employment enables interested foreign skilled workers with vocational training or holding a university degree recognised in Germany to come to Germany for a maximum of six months to find a job that their qualification enables them to perform. If you find an employer within half a year, you do not need to leave again but can apply for the necessary residence permit from the foreigners authority responsible for you in Germany. During your stay to seek employment, you are not allowed to take up gainful employment with the exception of work on a trial basis for up to 10 hours per week.
