

Information sheet: National visa

Visa for skilled workers with vocational training qualification (Section 18a Residence Act)

Basic information

- For general information please see our website <https://lusaka.diplo.de/zm-en/service> and our Visa Navigator <https://visa.diplo.de/en/#/vib>
- Documents not in the German/ English language must be submitted with a certified German translation. A translation of the personal data page of the passport is not required.
- All documents must be presented as original, certificates must be presented with apostille/legalisation. Your original documents will be returned to you once your application has been processed.
- Processing time is approx. 4-8 weeks but can take longer in individual cases.
- Flight reservations are not required to apply for a visa – please book your flights only when you have received your visa.
- The Embassy reserves the right to request further documents.
- Missing documentation delays the procedure and can result in your application being rejected.
- Please do not contact the Embassy to check the status of your application during the normal processing period. Such inquiries are extremely time-consuming for the visa section and can thus not be answered.

General information

As a skilled worker with vocational training qualification, you can be issued with a residence permit to engage in skilled employment that your qualification enables you to perform.

Please note that some university degrees from foreign universities are classified as vocational training qualifications in Germany.
